whether products or processes in all fields of technology including micro-organisms, provided they are new, involve an innovative step and are capable of industrial application. The Agreement does not address issues concerning gene banks. In a revised patent regime ICAR and other laboratories in the country would have the same opportunities for seeking intellectual property protection for their inventions as are generally available.

Opposition to Dunkel Draft

695. SHRI GOVINDRAO ADIK: Will the Minister of COMMERCE be ptesed to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that there is considerable opposition in the country on the signing of Dunkel Draft as it may surrender the economic sovereignty of the country;

(b) if so, the details thereof mentioning the merits and demerits of the Dunkel Draft; and

(c) what steps Government propose to take to save the economic sovereignty of the country after signing the Dunkel Draft?

THE MINISTER OF COMMERCE (SHRI PRANAB MUKHERJEE): (a) to (c) The Uruguay Round results will on the whole be advantageous to us in increasing our exports. There will be increased market access opportunities for Indian goods as a result of lowering of tariffs and the phase out of the multi-fibre arrangement. The services agreement would also provide export opportunities. The rules govering multilateral trade have been strengthened. Though we will be required to amend our patents regime there are safeguards against abuse of patent rights by the holder. Our development policies are not constrained. Question of surrendering economic sovereignty does not arise. In any International agreement Sovereign nations can agree to certain conditionalities for advancing their-mutual interest.

Proposal to allow export Oriented units to import tea

701. SHRI SOM PAL: Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is any proposal under Government's consideration to allow export oriented units to import tea;

(b) if so, the details thereof and the reasons therefor;

(c) whether Government have studied the likely impact of such a move on Indian Tea Industry and the tea growers; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF COMMERCE (SHRI PRANAB MUKHERJEE): (a) to (d) Import of tea is allowed only to Export Oriented Units and units in Export Processing Zones for re-exports only after blending with Indian teas. While allowing such imports adequate safeguards have been taken by the Govt, to ensure that such imports do not affect the domestic tea industry and also the image of Indian tea in the World market.

(c) Under the scheme which deals with Export Oriented Units, permission is given to import tea for blending with Indian tea for export. This scheme prescribes a minimum of 40% of value addition to be achieved by such enterprises and also stipulates that the Tea Board logo which symbolises pure Indian tea is not to be used in such cases. It also prescribes tea to be exported only in small packets and not in bulk with a view to promoting export of value added teas. These units are not allowed any domestic sale in order to ensure that there is no adverse effect on
